

Develop your career journey through a series of workshops!

- Explore the possibilities — use technology resources to determine the right path to design the life you want
- Walk away with tangible products — create your resume or plan for how to build your network
- Prepare for your future — learn how to land your first internship
- Sign up on Handshake today!!

Building Personal Brand for Networking Success

Discover and articulate a professional brand, develop and utilize professional skills, grow and employ interpersonal skills, identify networking tools and strategies. It's time to learn all the tips and tricks!

Career Exploration

Explore career paths and engage in career planning, the importance of skills in job seeking, and identify next steps in your career journey.

Career Resources and Technology

We are here for you! We will show you all of the technology at your disposal that you can access 24/7. We will share the importance of internships and career planning.

Cover Letter Writing Success

Learn how to target the content in your cover letter based on a specific job description and write accomplishment-based job and skill statements to stand out from the crowd.

Graduate Student Career Development

Master a foundational level of NACE competencies essential for success in pursuing a job and thriving in the workplace.

Preparing for an Interview

Learn how to answer informational, behavioral and situational questions. Get prepared for all types of formats (face-to-face, video, group), and identify proper interview etiquette to create a good impression.

Resumes: Create and Update

Produce a resume that describes your education, skills, experiences and measurable achievements with proper grammar, format and brevity. A polished resume is your ticket to the game!

Searching for Jobs, Internships, and Co-ops

Discover search strategies, tools and the hidden job market. Identify next steps in your career journey.